

Publication: Irish Daily Mail
Date: Tuesday, August 28, 2007
Page: 52
Extract: 1 of 1
Circulation: 58.993
Author:
Headline: Ethnic start-up boost

Ethnic start-up boost

THE Small Firms Association has called on the Government to provide help to people from ethnic minorities to start their own businesses.

Patricia Callan, director of the association, called for 'mainstream funding from the beginning of 2008 to provide targeted training supports for ethnic minority entrepreneurs.'

Some 200,000 non-nationals work here.